Case 3:07-cv-02007-DMS-WMC

4. The United States Marshal has established an account, the Seized Assets Deposit Account, for the deposit of seized currency until further order of the Court. It is further requested that the United States Marshal place the defendant currency in the Seized Assets Deposit Account administered by the United States Marshal. In the event any of the defendant currency is ordered to be returned to any claimant, the Court may order the payment of interest thereon. Depositing seized currency in such an account is proper. See, United States v. $57,480.05, 722 F.2d 1457 (9th Cir. 1984) (placing seized cash in bank account was not improper). The account credit of tangible dollars will constitute an appropriate substitute for the original defendant currency (res). Id.

WHEREFORE, plaintiff respectfully requests that an exception to General Order No. 273 be granted permitting the appointment of the United States Marshal as custodian and that the defendant currency be deposited in the aforementioned account and the res be therefore substituted in this action.
